

UNICON

eLux 7

Datasheet

Overview

eLux is an ultra light-weight, hardware agnostic, highly secure operating system purpose-built to help companies scale and secure their end-user computing in complex VDI, DaaS environments.

eLux 7 retains features from previous operations that have become vital to operations, including a light-weight and flexible OS, consistent employee experience, and built-in modularity. This is further enhanced with new features to improve customer experience.

Feature highlights

Enhanced look and feel

An innovative user interface and experience, designed with end users in mind, is tailored for hybrid work scenarios. Our focus on the modern workplace prioritizes seamless transitions between work locations, utilization of video, audio, and connectivity via WiFi/LTE, enhancing smooth communication and collaboration.

Dynamic partitions

Given the rising demand for applications on endpoints and their expanding size, dynamic partitioning becomes essential to optimize available space effectively. To ensure efficient storage management, a custom partition is dedicated specifically for third-party applications, ensuring that users can't inadvertently store data there.

Silent Updates

All update procedures of individual apps and components now take place completely in the background by utilizing a second setup and system partition. This allows for the seamless installation of the new image alongside the existing one, making it a breeze for administrators to implement on a large scale. Users don't need to lift a finger, as all updates occur seamlessly behind the scenes. Plus, if necessary, the system automatically reverts to the previous known good image upon the next boot.

Highly customizable

Theme everything to work for you. The eLux design allows you to tailor the theme to your own requirements. It is fully customizable to fit your corporate branding for a consistent employee experience.

Huge selection of vital applications

Unicon provides all the applications you need through the myelux.com marketplace - be it productivity, remote access, UC&C, multimedia, and much more. All the apps you need for a thriving workspace.

Long product lifecycle

Our solutions have evolved over the past two decades, crafted by a seasoned team of developers well-versed in virtualization scenarios at an enterprise level. This evolution aligns with the principles of continuous change management, offering peace of mind regarding product lifecycle. IT departments can easily extend hardware lifecycles by converting existing hardware with Unicon tools and utilities.

Faster deployments

eLux is optimized for automated onboarding into Scout end-point management. Administrators can roll out devices faster to save both time and effort.

Cost-efficient & sustainable

Deploy an ultra-lightweight, secure OS - saving costs now and in the long run, while also benefiting from sustainability and carbon savings.

More hardware choice

eLux is hardware-agnostic, allowing administrators to utilize any x86 platform endpoint device, including thin clients, desktop PCs, and laptops, in heterogeneous environments for delivering digital workspaces.

Built-in modularity

Release software packages in a modular manner to ensure high flexibility and eliminate complete OS updates from scratch.

Latest Linux core

This is the OS for now and the future. A secure OS that operates in increasingly complex environments and runs an ever-growing stack of virtual applications and desktops. It is ready for future devices, cementing its position as a long-term OS. It is based on Ubuntu components and the latest Linux kernel version for optimal support of hardware components.

Safe and secure

Secure by default with a write protected file system, and encrypted with TPM 2.0. Choose, manage and customize via the current Scout for ultimate customization.

Why Unicon?

- Secure endpoint access to any workspace
- Easily manage 300K+ endpoints from one platform
- Amazing employee experience in any digital workspace
- Transform your cost model for endpoint management
- Deliver on your sustainability goals through repurposing

1993

established

2.5M

endpoints secured

65

countries

30 years

in depth experience

Get in touch

www.unicon.com
info@unicon.com
+49 (0) 721 96451-0

Contact us

Book a demo